

From: HILL, WILLIAM
To: 'microsoft.atr(a)usdoj.gov'
Date: 1/23/02 1:26pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Any settlement that does not include both a breakup of Microsoft and harsh fines is inadequate to protect general computing in the United States.

Microsoft has shown the way to abuse programing's natural tendency toward standardization of code and interface. They have done nothing that others can not and will not do unless sound financial disincentives are offered.